UNCERTAINTY ABOUT THE CUP RACES UNTIL THE ENGLISH BOAT ARRIVES.

Every one seemed to feel well satisfied yesterday that the America's Cup Committee had made a wise choice in selecting the Morgan-Iselin yacht Vigilant to defend the cup against the Valkyrie, and the general opinion is that, under the circumstances, no other boat could possibly have been chosen. There are a few. owever, who contend that the Jubilee should have received another trial, but it is only just to say that none of this talk comes from Gen.

No happier man probably could be found in the country on Monday night than C. Oliver Iselin when he received the following letter from the Cup Committee:

NEW YORK, Sept. 13, 1893, Flacente May, Br. C. Oliver India. Dan Sin: By direction of the America's Cup Com mittee, I have the honor to inform you that, for the defence of the America's Cup against the challenge of the Valkyria, the committee have selected the Vigilant.
By order of the America's Cup Committee.

A. CASS CANFIELD, Secretary. The success of the Vigilant was in great le had hardly left the boat an hour since she was launched, and all his time was devoted to tting her in trim for the trial races. His ork is not over yet by any means, as a good cal remains to be done to the racht before ne cup races. It is said that the Herreshoffs hink they can improve her considerably be-ween now and Sept. 28, the date of the first up race, and she will be sent to Bristol some eduring the week and stripped to the very fore she is measured again. Just how matter difficult for any one, who saw her allors put it, " We are going to do it just the same." And there doesn't appear to be any ubt about the Herreshoffs doing it if any Ex-Commodore S. Nicholson Kane, Chairman of the Regatts Committee, was asked yesterday if all the details for the cup races had been settled yet. He said: "As matters how stand, the Cup Committee has stated to us. 'We have selected a boat to represent America in the international races for the Euo, and we place the date of the first race bept 28." Now the Regatta Committee have nothing to do but to wait for the boats to put it an appearance at the starting line, whenever that may be. A lot of petty details and preliminary work still remains to be settled by the Cup Committee."

When asked if the date of the first race might not be postponed until Oct. 5, the original date, he replied: "I do not know; that remains in the hands of the Cup Committee and Lord Dunraven, and winstever they mutually agree upon we are bound to accept. We will be the sole judges of the races, and map out their courses each iday, and our decision is final."

The Valkyrie has not yet been signted, and set the sole judges of the races, and map out their courses each iday, and our decision is final."

The Valkyrie has not yet been sighted, and while no anxiety is feit for her safety, it is to be hoped that she will arrive within the next few days, as she has only a very little time left to get ready for the races. H. Maitland kersey, who represents Lord Dunraven on this side of the water, said yestorday that sit also there being overdue and lost was noisense. "Why," he continued, "she has only been out twenty days, and may be sighted at any moment. However, I do not look for her for a week yet. The Genesta took twenty-one days to cross, the Galates twenty-inho days, and the Thistie twenty-two days, so you can see there is plenty of time yet. When asked if she were delayed whether the date or the first race would be changed, he said. "Nothing can be done until the valkyrie puts in an appearance and shows just what her condition is, and how long it will take to put her in racing trim. Yes, Lord Dunraven is soming over, and will sail with a party of friends on the Campania on Saturday. He will be accompanied by his wife, the Marquis of Ormonde, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Hugh Smith-Barry, and Lord Wolverton." Mr. kersey further said he would sail on the Valkyrie in her larges here, and that he did not know who would represent Lord Dunraven on the Vigilant.

MR. FORBES'S $125,000 COLT

ents His Field Handlly for an $11,000 CHICAGO, Sept. 12.-This has been a most successful senson for the famous trotters owned by J. Malcolm Forbes of Boston, and the victory of his valuable colt Arion at Washington Park to-day is the most signal triumph of the year for the rich Bostonian. Since he purchased the great colt for $125,000, Arion has only been seen in trials against time until this afternoon, when he made his debut in a race on a Western track, and land Spirit of the Times Purse, an event set on foot John Fowler Buck was present.

The day was an unfavorable one, the storm which had been threatening all the forenoon resulting in several showers that made the track quite soft before the sport was over. The howaver, was cleared, with the exception of the 2:17 trot, which was postponed after two heats had been decided. The two-yearold trotters were called first, and Baron Dillon ended the race for the Consolation Purse by two heats below 2:30, thus placing his record at 2:28%

Then the older trotters eligible to the 2:25 class scored up in double column, for there were thirteen of them. Brazil captured the lirst heat in 2:185, without much opposition. Jenny K. made him go faster the next time, forcing him to a new record of 2:174. She then set sail for time in earnest in the third heat.

Brazil kept in front until below the distance. when he gave it up. and Jenny K. won by a short length in 2:15... The next two neats went to the fast mare from Wisconsin, as Bra-til had enough of it, and she quite outclassed harast nen the Spirit of the Times Purse was call-

When the Spirit of the Times Purse was called Arion was favorite at $100 to $130 for the field. Trevilian drew the pole, and had no opposition from Arion for the first heat. Belleflower went to pieces at once, and Czar, aided by some running, forced Trevilian out in 2:16%, but Czar was set back to the rear for his mistakes.

It was $50 for Arion and $100 for the field before the second heat. When the colt got his head, however, he made short work of his four opponents. Trevilian stuck gamely to his wheel in the second mile, from the half, but Arion was playing with him. After going to the first half in 1:07%, the young son of Electioneer came home in 1:05%, trotting the last quarter in 31% seconds.

The next two heats, on a track quite heavy from the rain, were made in slower time, and Arion had seconds to spare in both miles. Belleflower ruined her chances by a terrific break in the first quarter of each heat. There was only time for two heats of the 2:17 trot, which Clara D. the feverite gethered in an

AGAINST THE STATE RECORD.

Ferriss Beats Time to a Twenty-four-hour Ride at Utica Park.

Unics. Sept. 12.—At 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon, Arthurf'. Ferriss of this city was started on the half mile track at Utica Park to beat the State biorcle record of Twenty four hours, 228 miles, made by Klipfel of Buffaio. He duished his first 100 miles in 6 bours 3 minutes, 150 miles in 9 bours 50 minutes, 200 miles in 14 hours 1 minute, 250 miles in 17 hours 21 minutes in 14 hours 1 minute, 250 miles in 17 hours 21 minutes its seconds.

The State record was besten at 10:30 o'clock this morain, and five hours and a half were still to be wheeled by the plucky fider. At this time Ferrias was in a very fair condition, but it was not believed that he could summon strength enough to catch up to spooner's record, 375 miles made at Chicago last year At 12:23 o'clock this afternoon Ferrias had made 2nd miles. He had been off his wheel I hour 40 minutes 20 seconds, since he started. He completed the 300th mile in 20 hours 30 minutes 40 seconds, 44 time and of this mile he lost sight minutes as seconds. At the end of this mile he lost sight minutes are seconds. He finished has simble mile in 22 hours 25 minutes.

At 4 o'clock and 17 seconds Ferris wound up his task by completing 350 miles.

Notes from the Bace Track.

P. Rogers had the mount on Golden Valley. It was the first time he had ridden since he broke his arm at Brighton Beach.

Goodwin's Official Turf Guide, No. 5, just printed, contains summaries of 2,205 races run up to date during the current year. This is probably the greatest number ever run in any country during a like period of time.

AGREAT DAY FOR FAVORITES

THE TALENT IN RARE FORM A GRAVESEND YESTERDAY.

Five thousand persons saw an interesting programme of seven races decided over a fast course at Gravesend vesterday afternoon, and as favorites were in the ascendancy, the talent won heavily. The weather was superb. Mr. Rowe had the jockeys under better control than on Monday, and the spectators were long before sundown.

Old bones Racoland was made the medium for a plunge in the opening event. Matt Allen's three-year-old By Jove at long odds, made the heel on the old gelding to wear the son of when he got in front a furlong from home and By Jove insted long enough to secure second money by a head from Loantaka. The Suburban winner of two years ago and Judge Morrow, victor in last year's Brooklyn Handicap, did not run up to their old form. Judge Mor row looks well, but has apparently lost his speed. As good as 15 to 1 could be had against By Jove for second money.

Dorian outclassed his opponents in the secting, but a plunge on Lucky Dog drove the brother to Kildeer down to an equal figure with the Macdonough candidate. Ornus, Micmac Queen, Longshanks, and Trinculalso carried considerable money. A perfect soon found Manoa and Dorian fighting for the lead, and they quickly outstripped the rest, Lucky Dog getting cut off on the turn. Overlon knew that Manoa would come back to him, and took matters very easily with Dorian until he saw Fred Littlefield bearing down upon him with Ornus. Then he rode for fifty yards or so, and won easily by a length and a half. Ornus beat Lucky Dog a length for second money, the latter closing quite a gap in the homestretch. Manoa died away to nothing nearing the finish. Correction was an odds-on favorite to beat Derfargilla. Fairy, Lustre, Tulla Blackburn, and Centella, and the public never tired of backing her. After Deggett had spoiled a couple of good starts, the flag fell with all in motion. Correction sprinted into the lead in the first hundred yards, and, running under a steady pull all the way, won with many pounds in reserve. Derfargilla and Fairy, ridden out, finished heads apart in the order named. The time, 1:14, and the handy fashlon in which Correction won shows how good the Morria mare is at present. She looks big and full of running. Fairy has been greatly improved by her rest. ped the rest, Lucky Dog getting cut her rest.

Deception and Aloha were the most fancied of the cight starters in the fourth race, a selling affair at one mile and a sixteenth. Acclaim, ridden by Jimmy Lamly, set a killing pace, and before half the journey was over had all but Deception beaten. The three-year-claim, ridden by Jimmy Lamir, set a killing pace, and before haif the journey was over had all but Deception beaten. The three-year-old filly gradually wore the California-bred daughter of Three Cheers down and, getting up in the final strides, wen a splendid race by a neck, the time. 1:48's, being very fast. Diable was a fair third. May Win, heavily played, was kicked at the post by Coquette and was last to get under way in the race. Despite this handicap he ran quite creditably. Aloha seemed to be outpaced.

The fifth race for maiden two-year olds looked like a sure victory for Jimmy Mc-Laughlin's Wernberg. The ceit was almost backed off the boards, and, with Taral up, the result was never in doubt, Wernberg running away from his field and winning hands down. Innocent and Half Mine had a flerce battle for second money, the former getting it by a neck.

The talents' selection for the second half of the maiden two-year-old race was Tenacious and once more they were correct, although it was a very close call. Midgley only getting up in the last stride and winning by a short head. Bill Daiv's Hartford, with Taral up, was second, only a neck before Long Brook, along shot from the Oneck Stable. Golden Valley would not break, and in company with Nonsense was left at the post.

The last race of the day, a selling event for three-year-olds, was a horse race. Emin Bey and Chattanooga carried thouzzede of dollars for the faithful, but Simmons was by no means unsupported. Simmons, Undel Jess, and Minnishala were the pacemakers to the stretch, where Emin Bey got through on the rail and looked like a winner. Johnny Lamly had kept Chattanooga in check until well straightened out for the run home, and, timing his run nicely, caught Emin Bey and won on the post by a head. Simmons was a fair third.

CLEVELAND'S TURN TO WEEP

NEW YORKS TAKE A GAME FROM TEBEAU'S MEN BY ONE RUN.

Brooklyne Continue Their Winning Strenk by Defrating St. Louis Again - Pittsburghs Sweep Everything Before Them ta Baltimore-Rain Saves the Bostons from Almost Sure Defrat-Wet Grounds Stop the Other Games-Interesting Gossip,

Local baseball cranks have reason to rejoice this morning. The New Yorks won a game from the Clevelands in the ninth inning under the most trying circumstances. The team showed undoubted nerve and pluck. played good ball, too, Foutz's men took another game from St. Louis, although they didn't bat with their usual strength. They are still eight points behind Ward's men, who are twenty points behind the Clevelands. The Pittsburghs not only trounced the Baltimores, but gained a few points on the Bostons, who were just saved from a five-inning defeat at the hands of the Chicagos by a welcome shower. Wet grounds prevented the games at Cincinnati and Louisville. The results: New York, 5; Cleveland, 4.

NEW YORK. 5; CLEVELAND. 4.

CLEVELAND, Sept. 12.—The New Yorks batted the ball this afternoon at just the right time, but even then it was all they could do to win the game, because of the beautiful fielding of the Clevelands. In spite of that beautiful fielding, there was one error made by Childs that lost the Clevelands the game. He fumbled the ball, and had he fielded it perfectly two men would have been out and no runs would have been out and no runs would have been scored. As it was, the New Yorks managed to get two more timely hits, and with those hits three runs, for which they would thank the chubby second baseman.

In the eighth inning it looked as though New York would surely score when Davis started with a two-base hit, and went to third on a sacrifice, but a brilliant play by McAleer prevented that. Rusic pitched with a very sore finger, and his work under the circumstances was superb. The Clevelands hit him hard in one inning, and had chances to make runs in other innings, but they could not touch the Hoosler bor, who generally has been hit hard in this city by the local team. New York fielded well, but one wild throw by Davis cest the visitors a run. Ward was especially strong at second base, and did good work with the bat as well. The score:

Brouthers and the Brooklyns, me time ago Tus Sus published a statement to the effect that the Brooklyn players were dissatisfied be effect that the Brooklyn players were dissatisfied be-cause of the lay-off ban Brouthers. At the time the team was playing ragged ball. This was pool-poohed by President Byrne, who was responsible for Brouthers's absence. Later This See printed an interview with Manages Poulz, in which he said he wanted Brouthers on the team, but again Mr. Syrne said "Pooh pooh." Now, however, Brouthers is playing regularly, and ever since he resumed his oid place at that base the Brooklyns have been playing winning ball. From all of which it may be easily inferred that The Sus was right.

SPRINGFIELD, Sept. 12.-Walter C. Sanger, the Milwaukee lad, was the trump card in the opening day's racing of the great annual Springfield tournament. Sanger added a deeided dash of ginger to what would otherwise have been a very tame day's sport, breaking the one-mile competition record in the mornthe one-mile competition record in the morning and the two-mile in the afternoon. His time for one mile was 2:08 1-5, three seconds ing and the two-mile in the afternoon. His below the record, and for two miles, 4:46 1-5, 1-5 seconds lower.

Two sessions were held to-day. As only the heats preparatory to the great contests of Wednesday and Thursday were to be run, but small crowds were present; twenty-four heats were run in the morning and twenty-two in the afternoon, all in a surprisingly short space mile handicap in the morning hours that Sanger appeared on scratch. There was a field of fourteen starters ahead of him, E. A. Mc Duffee having forty-five, A. W. Warren, sixty, and Titus sixty-five yards. At the pistol sho Sanger was off with surprising speed, and at the quarter was rapidly mowing down his men But there were many good riders with long marks, and Sanger was forced to ride all the

But there were many good riders with long marks, and Sanger was forced to ride all the way. His first half was done in 1:04-1-5, with a half dozen to pass yet. At the last quarter he was still fifth, but after rounding into the long straight, took the lead. Then only did he let up on his terrible gait, and careful watching Titus under his arm, he crossed the take but a length shead of the little flyer, in the remarkable time of 2:08-1-5. He had set every inch of the pace, and ridden a duplicate of his great race at Milwaukee, a month or more ago, when he did 2:09-4-5 before an admiring crowd of 10,000 persons.

To-day's performance was witnessed by 500 persons. A few minutes previous to this event, in the second race, H. C. Tyler had cut the record to 2:10-1-5, the previous record being 2:11-5, made by himself at the Chicago meet, Sanger's 2:09-4-5 being unofficial. Tyler won his heat easily, and, being a Springfield boy, was loudly choered for his spiendid work. Zimmerman appeared in the first heat of the same contest, but did not ride to win. He was poorly nineed at the turn. When little Mike Dirnberger cut out for home. Zimmerman was an easy second, but, sitting up, allowed Williamson of Springfield to pass him. W. A. thodes, from the 45-yard mark, captured the next heat in 2:11-4-5, and E. C. Baid of Buffalo the next and last in 2:13-4-5 from the 30-yard mark. The final will take place to-morrow, and it is the object of the management to bring Tyler. Sanger, and Zimmerman together on the secratch mark. Play in the chess match between Emanuel Lasker and A. Ettlinger was resumed at the Manhattan Chess Club on Monday evening. when Lasker scored his fourth victory. The latter had to play against a double Fianchetto. adopted by Ettlinger, who could not make much headway in the opening. As soon as he had castled on the king's side, Lasker initiated a very fine attack, to which black could offer little resistance, so he resigned after twentyeight moves. The score of the game :

J. S. Ryan challenged Lasker yesterday for a friendly game at the Manhattan Chess Club, and as a third game which these experts were scheduled to pay last fall, on the occasion of Laskers first engagement at the club, could not be played on account of ill health of Ryan, Lasker sat down to pay this dobt. He did it in splendid style. Ryan played a Ruy Lopez, which Lasker defended with 3. P-Q RA After the opening black seemed to get the better of the game, and although white put in some good work, he got into a somewhat blocked position. Lasker conducted the end game in really masterly style, and won a highly interesting game after thirty-six moves. The score:

A RARE LOT OF THOROUGHBREDS. Arrival of Valuable Consignments for Col-Bruce and Mr. J. B. Keene.

The White Star dock at foot of King street took on the unwonted aspect of a breeding paddock for a few hours yesterday morning. The freight steamer Nomadic reached her berth before 8 A. M., and arrangements were soon in progress for landing the valuable consignments of thoroughbred stock brought

Col. S. D. Bruce was on hand early to inspect his lot, consisting of fourteen mares and the stud horse Lord Esterling. All were in good health, but a few of the matrons were some-health, but a few of the matrons were somewhat light in condition after the trip. They travelled under the supervision of John A. Grey, and will winter at his paddocks in Morristown, N. J. They were taken there at noon, via Desprosses Street Ferry, after being landed without a scratch.

Lord Esterling attracted considerable attention. He is a handsome chestnut, with blaze face. He is untried at the stud, but has a good racing record, and is sound as a bell. His latest achievement on the track was in the great Jubice Handicap last season, when he ran third in a big field of equine glants.

Messrs, Grey and Bruce were particularly solicitous about the welfare of a handsome black mare, Pride of Waltham, The dusky matron is by Lord Lyon, and her new owners claim that a mare from this sire is a rarity at present which cannot be too highly prized. They also plumethemselves on having secured such a blue-blooded mare as Reve Royal, by Royal Hampton. The Bruce consignment consists of the following stock:

Lord Esterling, ch. E., S, by Esterling—Lady Speculum, by speculum.
